GRANT GUIDELINE

ELIGIBILITY

Before applying for our grant program, it's essential to understand the eligibility criteria for applicants. We are committed to supporting organizations that align with our mission and values, and to that end, we have outlined the categories of eligible and non-eligible applicants below:

Eligible Applicants:

- Civic Non-Profit Organizations: We welcome applications from civic non-profit organizations that provide a range of critical services, including direct healthcare, youth activities, elderly care, care for individuals with disabilities, special needs programs for women, assisted living, job growth initiatives, and educational programs.
- Christian Non-Profit Organizations: Christian non-profit organizations are eligible if they offer support to underprivileged communities by providing food, shelter, career training, and spiritual guidance. This may also include agricultural, educational, and health assistance programs.
- 501(c)(3) Tax-Exempt Status: All applicants must hold a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status to be considered for our grant program.

Non-Eligible Applicants:

- Political Action Committees: We do not consider applications from political action committees.
- For-Profit Organizations or Businesses: For-profit organizations and businesses are not eligible for our grant program.
- Loans or Program-Related Investments: We do not provide funding for loans, gap/bridge funding, speculative activities, or investments in businesses.
- Fundraising Events or Related Activities: Grant requests solely for fundraising events or related activities are not eligible.
- Individual Churches, Seminaries, Individuals, or Group Missionaries: We do not grant funds to individual churches, seminaries, individuals, or groups of missionaries.
- Public Media Organizations: Applications from public media organizations such as newspapers, radio stations, or TV networks are not within the scope of our grant program.

We encourage eligible organizations to carefully review these guidelines before applying to ensure alignment with our grant program's objectives and priorities. Thank you for your commitment to making a positive impact in our community.

Essential Steps for a Successful Application Submission

To successfully submit your application, please ensure the following:

- Complete and include the Application Cover Sheet.
- Review the checklist provided to verify the completeness and accuracy of your application.
- All applications must be received by the specified due date to be considered.
- Each applicant is limited to submitting one application per agency within the calendar year.

- Please note that the selection committee may request applicants to make a presentation about their program. The presentation date will be scheduled following the initial review of applications.

DESCRIPTION OF YOUR ORGANIZATION & PROGRAM

As per the Stewardship Program application requirements, kindly furnish a program narrative as described in the following sections: A. Overview and B. Proposed Program. Each section should contain the specified information detailed here, along with suggested response lengths. Please ensure that the application narrative does not surpass a total of five (5) pages.

A. APPLICANT OVERVIEW (1-2 pages)

- Mission Statement: Provide a concise description of your organization's mission.
- Experience and Achievements: Highlight your organization's past experience and notable accomplishments.
- Staff and Volunteer Composition: Describe the composition of your agency's staff and volunteers.
- Qualifications of Involved Personnel: Explain the qualifications of the staff and volunteers who will be engaged in the proposed activity(ies).

B. PROPOSED PROGRAM/PROJECT/ACTIVITY DESCRIPTION (1-2 pages)

- Program/Project/Activity Description: Detail the program, project, or activity for which you are seeking funding. Include a projected time frame for implementation.
- Objectives: Outline the specific objectives that your organization aims to achieve through this award. If applicable, clarify how these objectives can be measured.
- Implementation Strategy: Explain how your organization plans to successfully execute the proposed program, project, or activity. Highlight any anticipated changes from the current approach and what aspects will remain unchanged.
- [IMPORTANT] For 2025 Open Stewardship Program Recipients: If you received a grant in the prior year, provide a comprehensive description of how those funds were utilized. This must be presented in detail to qualify for continued funding.

Please use these guidelines to ensure a clear and informative narrative for your Open Stewardship Program application.

REVIEW CRITERIA AND PROCESS

Allocation of funds

Funds will be guided by the following criteria:

- Eligibility: Applicants must meet the specified funding eligibility criteria.
- Applicant's Qualifications: Consideration of the applicant's history, experience, and capacity to effectively execute the proposed activities.
- Community Impact: Assessment of the demonstrated impact and benefit of the program/project on the community and its members.
- Feasibility: Evaluation of the practicality and feasibility of program/project implementation.
- Financial Capacity: Examination of the applicant's financial capability.
- Sustainability: Appraisal of the program/project's long-term sustainability.
- Transparency: Consideration of the transparency of the program/project.
- Measurable Purpose: The funding purpose should be quantifiable and measurable.

Application Process:

- Initial Eligibility Review: Applications will undergo an initial review to determine if they align with the program's eligibility criteria.
- Presentation and Visitation: Following the initial review, applicants may be invited to present their proposals, and representatives from the Open Stewardship Foundation may conduct site visits to the organization.
- Final Selection: The final recipients and grant amounts will be determined based on the review of submitted documents, applicant presentations, and site visitation findings.

Notes to Grant Recipients:

The Open Stewardship Foundation has the right to grant an amount that may differ from what applicants initially request. The Foundation will allocate the funds in a way that aligns best with the specific nature of the project or program. To ensure hassle-free grant transfer, we strongly suggest that grant recipients set up an account with Open Bank. Please keep in mind that attending the Award Ceremony is a must if you want to receive your funds. We hold this event to recognize and celebrate the great work our grantees do. It is important to note that recipients might undergo post-program evaluations and fiscal audits. These checks are in place to ensure that the funds are used according to the program's objectives, maintaining transparency and accountability throughout our grant allocation process.

The Foundation retains the discretion to make exceptions for projects that may not meet all of the aforementioned criteria or conditions but demonstrate a compelling need for special consideration due to their unique nature.
